

FUELLING THE FUTURE OF MEDIA EDUCATION

VISHWA SAMVAD
EDUCATION FOUNDATION

VSEF

WHO WE ARE

MARCHING AHEAD
WITH A DECADE OF EXCELLENCE

Education is an ultimate weapon to transform this world. VSEF - Vishwa Samvad Education Foundation stands by this adage and aspires to uplift every brain that craves for knowledge and wants to be nurtured for a brighter future. Established in the year 2007 with a concrete objective of fostering fresh thinking and innovation, VSEF today manifests the glorious decade of excellence in the field of media education with NIMCJ. We at VSEF, have a motive to revolutionize the way higher education is provided to young minds with our unique approach of nurturing creativity and embracing technology. And to realize that motive our succeeding step is to create a nextgen institute for media education by paving the stone for our very ambitious project NIMCaR.

VISION

We strive to convert mirrors into not windows but golden doors of opportunities with exceptional education and making it available to each and every individual who is hungry for knowledge.

MISSION

VSEF pursues excellence in spreading awareness and making knowledge & learning accessible to form a nurturing community.

THE JOURNEY AHEAD

ABOUT NIMCCAR

PROGRESSIVE STEP TOWARDS
INFINITE POSSIBILITIES

NIMCJ is now progressing to have not just a name change but an absolute advancement with its ambitious expansion plan. National Institute of Media Communication and Research (NIMCaR) offers the fundamental education for every budding media enthusiast feeding their creativity and enhancing it for a better tomorrow with substantial aggregation of basic academics in media and research. This expansion mission of building a unique establishment encompassing best media professionals, consultants from different genres and well qualified academicians is spearheaded by the core management team of VSEF.

MISSION

NIMCaR's first priorities are its students, their learning and their path towards success. We foster the diverse educational, economical and cultural needs of the student by providing opportunities for life-long learning.

Enhancing the knowledge imparting and sharing with:

- International symposiums and seminars
- International University tie ups
- National media museum
- Conducting research

VISION

We envision becoming the institute providing qualitative concrete media education in India. NIMCaR stands by the philosophy of constructing an environment conducive to students, where research and facts are the only base for every minutest discussion.
